

BI-ANNUAL REPORT

BOULDER
SUPERMARKET TRAGEDY

JANUARY - JUNE 2022

MESSAGE FROM THE COLORADO HEALING FUND

On March 22, 2022, we reflected on one year since the Boulder Supermarket Tragedy. The cameras have gone away, but the road to healing is in front of all those whose lives were changed forever. History has shown us that the first year after a tragedy can be especially difficult, and CHF remains steadfast in our work to help all those immediately impacted as they continue to grieve, heal, and look for support.

Through the course of the last year and a half, CHF has made 10 disbursements. Over $2,540,000 of those disbursements were cash disbursements to the families and the survivors named in the criminal case. $603,000 was utilized to support any individual directly impacted by the tragedy, by paying for their rent, utilities, moving costs, medical bills, travel, and more. Furthermore, CHF has been working in close collaboration with the Boulder community to identify unmet needs in supporting law enforcement as they heal from the trauma they experienced responding to the tragedy. Lastly, CHF continues to work closely with the Boulder Strong Resource Center (BSRC) to support all holistic services provided there, as those services are not covered by state or federal grants but are a key pillar in trauma recovery.

CHF remains diligent in reviewing and revising long-term disbursement plans for funds that have been set aside for support in years to come, utilizing the insight and knowledge from partners on the ground including the Boulder Police Department, District Attorney's Office, and the Colorado Organization for Victim Assistance (COVA).

ACTIVATION OVERVIEW

On March 22, 2021, the Colorado Healing Fund (CHF) activated in response to the mass shooting that occurred at the Table Mesa King Soopers in Boulder, Colorado, also known as the Boulder Supermarket Tragedy. The CHF, in accordance with its mission and guiding protocols, determined the Boulder Supermarket Tragedy fit within the criteria for activation and made this decision public following the press conference held by the Boulder Police Department.

Criteria the CHF Board of Trustees takes into consideration when deciding to activate are the nature and scale of the event, the number of murdered and injured individuals, those directly witnessing or affected by the violent act, the likelihood of adverse community impact, and the potential for exhaustion of currently available resources. Once activated, the CHF officially provides a secure location for the public to donate, while making funds from its general victims fund immediately available to fill gaps in resources. General Protocols are detailed in the Reports section of the CHF website: www.coloradohealingfund.org.

DISBURSEMENT PLANS AND POLICY

Prior to the one year remembrance of the Boulder Supermarket Tragedy, CHF made a distribution of funds, recognizing the mental and emotional impact the one-year mark has on the families and survivors. The Board has retained a smaller portion of all donated funds to address mid and long-term needs as they arise. These plans were developed in the months since the Boulder Supermarket Tragedy and reflect lessons learned from multiple past incidents.

CHF was established to offer support and funding during a criminal case and beyond. Experience shows that birthdays and holidays, as well as three and six-year observances, are known to be triggering events for families of the deceased and survivors of mass violence. The organization will continue to coordinate with the Boulder community to monitor needs and respond in accordance with its mission until all funds have been appropriately disbursed.
